Table of Contents

4. Rock Mass Classification as an Aid to Estimating the Strength of Coal Pillars. A Trueman, CSIRO, Brisbane, Qld, Australia, I G Tl Thin and D B Tyler, Camborne School of Mines, Cornwall, UK.

5. A Study on Stress Distribution and Reasonable Size of a Coal Pillar In a Coal Face. H C Li and Q P. Wang, China University of Mining and Technology, Xuzhou and Y H Quan, Zhaozhuang Mining Bureau, Shandong, China.

13. Historical Perspective and Future Projection of Longwall Mining in the United States. T M Barczak, USBM, Pittsburgh, PA, USA.

viii

20. Pressure Distribution of 2-Leg Shield Supports. R Pothini, Island Creek Coal Co., WV, H S Chieng and S S Peng, West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV, USA.

23. Rigid or Yielding Roof Bolts: At The Face or Away from The Face. R D Lama, Kembra Coal & Coke Pty Ltd, Wollongong, Australia and B Z Amusin, VNIMI, St Petersburg, Russia.

32. Deformation of Retreat Gateroad in Inter-panel Pillar System. K Matsui and M Ichinose, Kyushu University, Japan, and K Gotoh and T Tsuru, Matsushita Coal Mining Co Ltd, Fukuoka, Japan.

34. How to Cope with Cutter Roof Problem. A Wahab Khair, West Virginia University, Morgantown, WV, USA.

37. Ground Control Hazard Analysis in Multi-Seam Mining. R Fraher, C Haycock and M Kamal, Virginia Polytechnic and State University, Blacksburg, Virginia, USA and Y Zhou, Nanying Technical University, Singapore.

40. Subsurface Fracture Developments Due to Longwall Mining and Its Interpretation Using Image Processing Techniques. G X Sun, D J Reddish and B N Whittaker, University of Nottingham, UK.

42. Continuous Monitoring of Mechanised Breaker Line Supports to Investigate Roof and Pillar Behaviour. I L Follington, R Trueman, T P Medhurst and I N Hutchinson, CSIRO, Brisbane, Qld, Australia.

43. Numerical Modelling of a Monitored Site in an Underground Coal Mine in the Bowen Basin. M E Duncan Fama, R Trueman and T P Medhurst, CSIRO, Brisbane, Qld, Australia.

45. A Study on the High-Water Solidifying Materials For Gob-Alone Roadside Instead of Coal Pillars. Y Qi, H Sun, China University of Mining and Technology, Beiing and J Yin, Hobi Mining Administration Bureau, Henan Province, China.

48. A Possible Alternative to Hardwood Chock Pieces. B G D Smart, Heriot-Watt University, Scotland, D A Brock, formerly The University of Strathclyde, Scotland, D Thorpe, formerly with Mullinson Denny(Scotland) Ltd, and J Somerville, Heriot-Watt University, Scotland.
